

EXERCISES 7

- A. 次の各文の () の中から適当なものを選び番号で答えなさい。
1. If I say that the meeting is over, I mean that the meeting has ((1) just begun (2) ended (3) been interesting (4) been called off).
 2. If I say that I'd rather wait, I mean that I ((1) like to (2) refuse to (3) prefer to) wait.
 3. If I say that, after studying the message, I finally figured it out, this means that at last I ((1) answered the message (2) understood it (3) put it away (4) picked it up).
 4. If the month is up, that means that the period of one month has ((1) ended (2) begun (3) seemed long (4) been very warm).
 5. To put off something means to ((1) look for it (2) put it in place (3) have it (4) postpone it).
 6. To get sick means to ((1) recover (2) become ill (3) be well).
 7. If the doctor says that you'd better do a certain thing, this means that ((1) you must do it (2) you are going to do it (3) it is advisable that you do it).
 8. To point out something is to ((1) need it (2) see it (3) look it up (4) indicate it).
 9. By the way is a synonym for ((1) however (2) at last (3) incidentally (4) immediately).

- B. この課で学んだ熟語を用いて、次の質問に答える文を作りなさい。
1. At what hour was the meeting over last time?
 2. Do you always arrive at the lesson on time or do you sometimes arrive late?
 3. Why is it better never to put off until tomorrow what you can do today?
 4. What do you generally do when you get hungry? What do you do when you get thirsty? When you get sleepy? When you get tired? When you get sick?
 5. Do you sometimes get nervous before an examination or do you have steel nerves?
 6. Where would you rather go tonight—to the theater or to the opera?
 7. Would you rather go by bus or by taxi?
 8. Why did the teacher tell William that he had better spend more time on his lessons?

Uh, Dear, there's something I think I'd better point out.

