

EXERCISES 4

- A. 次の各文の斜字体の部分をも () 内の語を用いて適当な形に書き換えなさい。
- You'll have to search for his number in the telephone book.
(look _____)
 - He asked me to come in and sit down.
(take _____)
 - The accident occurred on the corner of Park Avenue and 32nd Street.
(take _____)
 - I will consider your plan carefully and give you an answer next week.
(think _____)
 - The pitcher did not feel well enough to participate in the game.
(take _____)
 - Up to the present* we have enjoyed our trip very much.
(so _____)
 - He doesn't speak English to any degree.
(at _____)
 - The mother said to the child, "You have played long enough with your toys. Now please return them to their proper place."
(put _____)
 - Did a man or a woman attend to you in that store?
(wait _____)
 - The salesman said to me. "Please test this coat for size."
(try _____)
- You ought to spend two hours as a minimum in the fresh air every day.
(take _____)
 - In the evening we promenaded down Fifth Avenue.
(take _____)
- B. この課で学んだ熟語を用いて、次の質問に答える文を作りなさい。
- If you do not know someone's telephone number, where do you look it up?
 - In what century did the American Revolution take place?
 - How many invitations have you sent out for your party so far?
 - Approximately how many different countries take part in the United Nations General Assembly each year?
 - Does your friend speak English well, with some difficulty, or not at all?
 - When you go to a store to buy something, do you prefer to have a man or a woman wait on you?
 - How many pairs of shoes did you try on before buying the pair that you are now wearing?
 - Are you a neat person? Do you always put your things away after using them?

Well, so far so good.

